

Case Study:

Radioactive artefacts and Impacted Soils Remediation

Client: Withheld

Contract: Non Disclosure Agreement

Value: Non Disclosure Agreement

Services: Technical Support for a Site Remediation of Radioactive Substances

GO Projects' Client purchase property which had been commandeered by the war office and occupied by the Royal Airforce during WWII. The land was surveyed and soil contamination was identified. The Contaminants of Concern were Hydrocarbons and Radium 226

GO Projects assisted on this site with the ecological constraints/ Natural England Permitting and the Radioactive Waste Permitting.

The site operation was supervised by GO Projects and the relevant associate specialists.

GO Projects also supplied the Dangerous Goods transportation advise of part of our specialism ensuring ADR compliance and safety for all persons, property and the environment. This included toolbox talks and the sourcing and supply of UN rated packaging and labelling

Services Offered:

Early Client and Other Stakeholder Engagements

Project Overview and Implementation Planning

Appointment of RPA and Ecologist Specialists and Permitting Applications

Site Management and Reporting

Site-wide Sampling and Analysis as Works Progressed

Full Close-out Reporting of All Works,